IMPLEMENTATION OF THE WATERFRONT SMALL AREA PLAN

OLIN

An aerial photograph of a large crowd of people gathered on a green lawn. The people are scattered across the entire frame, some sitting, some standing, and some in small groups. The lawn is a vibrant green, and the people are wearing various casual summer clothing. The perspective is from directly above, looking down on the crowd.
